Act of Consecration to St Michael the Archangel

O St. Michael the Archangel, most Noble Prince of the Angelic Hierarchies, valorous warrior of Almighty God, and zealous lover of His Glory, terror of the rebellious angels, and love and delight of all the just, desiring to be numbered among thy devoted servants, I, today offer and consecrate myself to thee, and place myself, my family and all I possess under thy most powerful protection.

I entreat thee not to look at how little, I, as thy servant have to offer, being only a wretched sinner, but rather gaze, with favorable eye, at the heartfelt affection with which this offering is made. Remember that, if from this day onward, I am under thy patronage, thou must assist me during all my life and procure for me the pardon of my many sins, and the grace to love God, my dear Savior Jesus, and my Sweet Mother Mary with all my heart. Obtain for me the help necessary to arrive at my crown of glory.

Defend me always from my spiritual enemies, particularly in the last moments of my life.

Come then, O Glorious Prince. Succor me in my last struggle. With thy powerful weapon cast far from me and into the infernal abyss that prevaricator and proud angel that thou prostrated in the celestial battle.

Saint Michael, defend us in our daily battles so that we may not perish in the Last Judgment. Amen.

(An indulgence of two-hundred days is granted to everyone who devoutly says this prayer once a day, praying for the needs of the holy Church and the Supreme Pontiff.)

(It is an ancient consecration prayer that some source says is connected to the Shrine at Monte Gargano, Italy, one of the oldest Christian sites dedicated to St. Michael the Archangel. It is a prayer that can be used as a home consecration prayer, entrusting your Entire family to the protection of the Holy Archangel.)

Acto de Consagración a San Miguel Arcángel

Oh San Miguel Arcángel, Noble Príncipe de las Jerarquías Angélicas, valeroso guerrero de Dios Todopoderoso, y celoso amante de Su Gloria, terror de los ángeles rebeldes, y amor y deleite de todos los justos, deseando ser contado entre tus devotos siervos, yo hoy me ofrezco y me consagro a ti, y me pongo a mí mismo, a mi familia y a todo lo que poseo bajo tu poderosísima protección.

Te suplico que no mires lo poco que yo, como siervo tuyo, tengo para ofrecer, siendo sólo un miserable pecador, sino que mires, con ojos favorables, el afecto sincero con que se hace esta ofrenda. Acuérdate que, si desde este día en adelante estoy bajo tu patrocinio, debes asistirme durante toda mi vida y procurarme el perdón de mis muchos pecados, y la gracia de amar a Dios, mi amado Salvador Jesús, y mi Dulce Madre María con todo mi corazón. Obtenme la ayuda necesaria para llegar a mi corona de gloria. Defiéndeme siempre de mis enemigos espirituales, particularmente en los últimos momentos de mi vida.

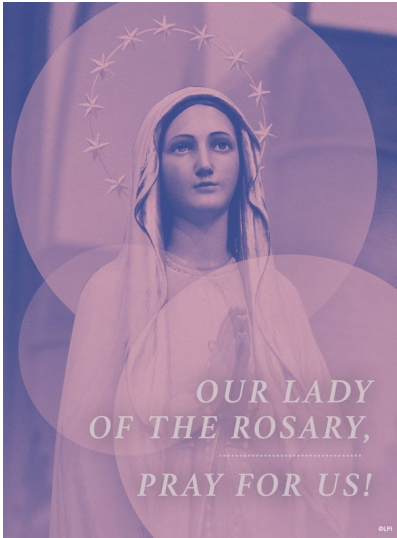

Ven entonces, oh Glorioso Príncipe. Socórreme en mi última lucha. Con tu poderosa arma arroja lejos de mí y en el abismo infernal a ese ángel prevaricador y soberbio que tú postraste en la batalla celestial.

San Miguel, defiéndenos en nuestras batallas diarias para que no perezcamos en el Juicio Final. Amén.

(Se concede una indulgencia de doscientos días a todo aquel que reza con devoción esta oración una vez al día, orando por las necesidades de la santa Iglesia y del Sumo Pontífice).

(Es una antigua oración de consagración que, según alguna fuente, está relacionada con el Santuario de Monte Gargano, Italia, uno de los sitios cristianos más antiguos dedicados a San Miguel Arcángel. Es una oración que se puede usar como oración de consagración en el hogar, confiando toda tu familia a la protección del Santo Arcángel.)

October, Month of Our Lady of The Rosary

On October 7, the Roman Catholic Church celebrates the yearly feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. Known for several centuries by the alternate title of “Our Lady of Victory,” the feast day takes place in honor of a 16th century naval victory which secured Europe against Turkish invasion. Pope St. Pius V attributed the victory to the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, who was invoked on the day of the battle through a campaign to pray the Rosary throughout Europe.

The feast always occurs one week after the similar Byzantine celebration of the Protection of the Mother of God, which most Eastern Orthodox Christians and Eastern Catholics celebrate on October 1 in memory of a 10th-century military victory which protected Constantinople against invasion after a reported Marian apparition.

Pope Leo XIII was particularly devoted to Our Lady of the Rosary, producing 11 encyclicals on the subject of this feast and its importance in the course of his long pontificate.

In the first of them, 1883's “Supremi Apostolatus Officio,” he echoed the words of the oldest known Marian prayer (known in the Latin tradition as the “Sub Tuum Praesidium”), when he wrote, “It has always been the habit of Catholics in danger and in troublous times to fly for refuge to Mary.”

“This devotion, so great and so confident, to the august Queen of Heaven,” Pope Leo continued, “has never shone forth with such brilliancy as when the militant Church of God has seemed to be endangered by the violence of heresy ... or by an intolerable moral corruption, or by the attacks of powerful enemies.” Foremost among such “attacks” was the battle of Lepanto, a perilous and decisive moment in European and world history.

Troops of the Turkish Ottoman Empire had invaded and occupied the Byzantine empire by 1453, bringing a large portion of the increasingly divided Christian world under a version of Islamic law. For the next hundred years, the Turks expanded their empire westward on land, and asserted their naval power in the Mediterranean. In 1565 they attacked Malta, envisioning an eventual invasion of Rome. Though repelled at Malta, the Turks captured Cyprus in the fall of 1570.

The next year, three Catholic powers on the continent – Genoa, Spain, and the Papal States - formed an alliance called the Holy League, to defend their Christian civilization against Turkish invasion. Its fleets sailed to confront the Turks near the west coast of Greece on October 7, 1571.

Crew members on more than 200 ships prayed the Rosary in preparation for the battle - as did Christians throughout Europe, encouraged by the Pope to gather in their churches to invoke the Virgin Mary against the daunting Turkish forces.

Some accounts say that Pope Pius V was granted a miraculous vision of the Holy League's stunning victory. Without a doubt, the Pope understood the significance of the day's events, when he was eventually informed that all but 13 of the nearly 300 Turkish ships had been captured or sunk. He was moved to institute the feast now celebrated universally as Our Lady of the Rosary.

“Turkish victory at Lepanto would have been a catastrophe of the first magnitude for Christendom,” wrote military historian John F. Guilmartin, Jr., “and Europe would have followed a historical trajectory strikingly different from that which obtained.”

"This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad!"

We celebrate 100 years of Catholic Education in Nativity-St Stanislaus Parish, Ozone Park. Nativity BVM's School building opened in 1922 and St Stanislaus BM opened in 1926. For 80 years the schools worked side by side to shape the future of our community, state, county and world by nurturing the hearts, souls and minds of the children. In 2007 the schools merged and in 2008 the name was changed to Divine Mercy Catholic Academy. Whether you graduated from Nativity, St Stans or Divine Mercy we are ALL ONE, as we celebrate this milestone. A milestone that not many Catholic schools have reached.

Come and join us on Saturday, October 14th 2023 for a Mass of Thanksgiving, celebrated by Bishop Robert Brennan, and party with us following the Mass at Villa Russo. At this time, graduates from different decades will be recognized. Join us on the 14th and/or send your best wishes/memories as part of our anniversary journal.
